Pertinent Paragraphs

Traffic control is still the important issue. Two accidents in one week at the corner where Monterey Heights residents turn off Imperial, make some change necessary, be it re-routing, more stop signs, overhead crossing, or any other means of traffic control.

It all ties in with the development of Imperial as a four-lane highway. Residents of Monterey Heights should have the final say in the matter. Development of this section will not stop at the present boundary lines. We don't believe in annexation, but orderly development may force us to ask for a "United Nations Mandate" over some of the territory now within the city limits of San Diego or La Mesa, for incorporation with Lemon Grove.

It was pointed out to us that children playing along the route are putting papers into the U. S. Mail boxes. This is not only a nuisance, but a serious offense.

Big Day For New Church Building Set for March 29

The big day for the First Congregational Church is about to arrive. Sunday, March 27, they plan to open their new class rooms for the primary department and Tuesday March 29, they will open the doors to the public, serving a ham dinner, beginning at 5:30 p. m

On opening night the Ladies Aid will serve the ham dinner and also conduct a Food Sale and bazaar.

The new kitchen is a dream come true, the last word in convenience and beauty. There is a sound-proof door between the kitchen and dining room, and a long serving counter across the kitchen, for serving plates, desserts, etc.

The huge dining room is beautiful with its polished hardwood floors, its high ceilings with exposed beams and the large stage at one end. There are no supporting pillars in this room as the laminated wooden arches give the ceiling beautiful lines and support the roof adequately.

Acoustic tile on the walls make for better listening, and the lighting is soft and diffused.

There will be entertainment from the stage following the dinner.

The public is urged to come out and get acquainted with this group of folks who have worked diligently the past few months to raise funds for the new social hall.

Several Local Folks Attend Spring Meeting Of Congregationalists

Several members from the local Congregational Church motored to Ramona Sunday to attend the spring meeting of the San Diego Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers of the southwest.

It was held in the First Congregational Church in Ramona from 3:00 to 8:00 p. m. and a full church listened to the interesting sessions.

Rev. William Jones, president of Whittier College, presented a very interesting address on "Ideas and Stewardship."

Rev. Jones had much to say of peace plans. He insisted that peace will not come through international law and police forces, but rather in the minds of men. "Words like Nigger, Jap, Oakie, etc. will not do." He continued that the idea that men of fair skin are predestined to rule the world, is a fallacy. He stated that each nation must have at heart the welfare of all other nations, saying "It is not any easier for a Chinese father to watch his son die of starvation, than it would be for a white father to have the same experience."

He told this story of a banquet held by a large city Chamber of Commerce: "Awealthy business man found himself seated next to an Oriental in full native costume. To make conversation he said to the Chinese gentleman, "Likee Soup?" The man only smiled. Later he was introduced to make the principal speech of the evening, which he presented in faultless English."

"At the conclusion of his very intelligent discourse he asked the American business man, "Likee speech?" "

The Ramona ladies served a tea, followed by an address by the superintendent of the Southern California conference of Congregational Churches, Dr. Nelson C. Dreier. He had attended the World Conference of Christian Churches last August in Europe, and showed moving pictures of dignitaries attending, and scenes of devastated war-torn cities and the make-shift housing accommodations most of them have to endure.

Lemon Grove residents attending were Rev. and Mrs. Dan Apra, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gould, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Herder, Mrs. Mary Conklin, Mrs. Hannah Abbott, Mrs. Agnes Osgood, Mrs. May Yount, Rev. Earl Lindsley, Wayne Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bird Garrett, Dianna Allison and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gillespie.
